JOSE MOURINHO

Good afternoon and welcome back.

It is great to be back at our home for the first time in 2020.

We, of course, would rather be coming into this game on the back of a run of better results than the ones we have achieved since our win over Brighton here on Boxing Day. The number of points we have secured on the road has not been what any of us would have wanted and we understand we need to improve in this area.

We're back at home today where we have enjoyed some of our best moments and we are determined to turn our recent run of form around.

Having gone 1-0 down on Boxing Day to Brighton, we showed spirit to fight back and come away with a deserved 2-1 victory.

"I WANT TO TELL YOU HOW MUCH WE APPRECIATE THE INCREDIBLE EFFORTS YOU MAKE TO GO AND SUPPORT US WHEREVER WE ARE PLAYING"

It is never ideal to fall behind in a game but the fact we were able to also respond in matches at Norwich City and Middlesbrough shows the determination and the character this squad possesses, particularly with the number of recent injuries and suspensions we have suffered. Lesser teams may have lost those games but we kept playing with intensity and effort to pull ourselves back in, although on both occasions it was disappointing that we couldn't go one further and win.

We welcome Liverpool today and we recognise their quality, so we will need to work to our maximum levels across the pitch if we are to achieve another positive result like we did against Brighton.

You have turned out in your thousands at home and all over the country in a festive period where there are so many games in a short amount of time. I want to tell you how much we appreciate the incredible efforts you make to go and support us wherever we are playing. You are always with us and behind the players up until the very end of every match and it doesn't go unnoticed. I have no doubt we will get that same feeling today from the stands as we all aim to get the positive result we desire in order to continue our quest to move higher up in the table.

I hope you enjoy your afternoon with us.

SONNY'S SOLO STRIKE TOPS THE POLL!

It's official – our Goal of the Decade came right at the end of our latest 10-year period as Heung-Min Son claimed the honours for his marvellous solo effort in the 5-0 home win over Burnley on 7 December last year.

Our supporters voted in their thousands on social media over the festive period and chose Sonny's effort as our Goal of the Decade, with 43 per cent of the vote.

Lucas Moura's hat-trick goal in the Champions League semi-final at Ajax last May was runner-up with 30 per cent – more for its importance than its style – while Dele's brilliant turn and volley at Crystal Palace in January, 2016, was third with seven per cent.

FA CUP LATEST

Our FA Cup third round replay against Middlesbrough here on Tuesday (14 January) has been selected for live television coverage and will now kick-off at 8.05pm.

The tie will be shown live on BBC One and BBC iPlayer and must be settled on the night, with extra time and penalties if required.

Meanwhile, should we overcome Boro in that game, we have been drawn away to Southampton in the fourth round of the FA Cup, with ties scheduled to be played over the weekend of 24-27 January.

LUCAS LOVES THE CUP

Lucas Moura fell in love with the FA Cup back in 2018 – and he delivered again for us in the competition at Middlesbrough on Sunday.

For a player who has stepped onto the biggest stages in football, Lucas will never forget Rochdale's Deepdale Stadium and a goal on his full debut in the fifth round of the competition on 18 February, 2018.

That tie went to a replay that we won at Wembley and thanks to Lucas' header at the Riverside, we'll now meet Boro again in a replay here next week.

"I remember Rochdale, that game will be in my heart forever, my first goal," he said. "I'm happy to score again. It's a good competition and we have an opportunity to win a trophy, so let's fight, let's work and I will give everything to win this competition."

Lucas conceded we could have won as it ended 1-1 on Teesside as we dominated much of the contest against a team well-organised under the guidance of former Spurs Jonathan Woodgate and Robbie Keane.

However, we had to come from behind after Ashley Fletcher broke through to open the scoring for the home side on 50 minutes but we were level just after the hour via Lucas' header from Serge Aurier's cross.

Boro's goalkeeper Tomas Mejias saved well from Lucas, Erik Lamela and Heung-Min Son before Serge blasted a late chance over.

"It was a tough game and the feeling is a bit bad, because we could win this game, we had the opportunities to score the second goal, but we fight on," added Lucas.

"We know that in the last few games we've not been at our best and we need to improve some things, we know that. This was a good opportunity to win but at least we didn't lose, we have the next game and let's take this week to improve and work more."

GRAEME SOUNESS
DOB: 06.05.1953
POSITION: MIDFIELDER

As part of an occasional feature, Andy Greeves takes a look at former Spurs players who made just a single competitive appearance for us. Today, he explores the career of Liverpool legend Graeme Souness, who made his Spurs cameo in a UEFA Cup tie away to Icelandic side Keflavik back in 1971.

Graeme James Souness was born in Edinburgh on 6 May, 1953 and attended Carrickvale Secondary – the same school as our former skipper, Dave Mackay. Prior to joining our youth ranks some four weeks after his 15th birthday, the then wing-half turned out for Scotland in a 1-0 victory over England in a Schoolboy International at White Hart Lane on 16 March 1968 – a match watched by the late, great Mackay.

"Dave Mackay had broken his leg for the second time and was sitting watching this game one Saturday afternoon and later said I reminded him of himself, which is an enormous compliment," Souness later said in an interview reflecting on his first White Hart Lane appearance.

Graeme scored four goals in 20 South East Counties League appearances during his debut season with us in 1968/69, while he also featured in the London Youth Cup, FA Youth Cup, South East Counties League Cup, Southern Junior Floodlight Cup and the Metropolitan League that campaign. He put pen-to-paper on an apprentice contract on 26 April, 1969 and signed his first professional deal with us just over 12 months later.

The Scot played an influential role in our FA Youth Cup success of 1969/70, appearing in all 11 matches in the tournament that campaign. He scored three goals for us in the competition, including the winner in our 1-0 triumph over Coventry City in the second replay of the final.

Souness' solitary first team appearance for us came as a substitute in a UEFA Cup first round, first leg match against Keflavik on 14 September, 1971. We were leading 5-0, thanks to braces from Alan Mullery and Alan Gilzean and a further strike from Ralph Coates, when Souness was introduced as a 74th-minute replacement for Mullery. "Graeme's game was stamped with that familiar swagger... his passing was immaculate," described Ivan Ponting on Souness' debut in Reykjavik, in the 1993 book Tottenham Hotspur - Player By Player.

Graeme was one of two substitutes used by Bill Nicholson on the night, with Jimmy Pearce replacing Coates. Two minutes after Souness came on, Keflavik got a consolation goal through Olafur Juliusson prior to Gilzean completing his hat-trick and our 6-1 victory with a header some four minutes from time. Our 9-0 triumph in the second leg at White Hart Lane saw us progress to the second round with a 15-1 aggregate success.

At the end of the 1971/72 season, Souness was loaned to Montreal Olympique in the North American Soccer League. Having starred in 10 of Olympique's 14 matches during the summer of 1972, the midfielder was named in the league's All-Star Team at the end of the campaign.

Towards the end of 1972, Souness was sold to Middlesbrough for a fee in the region of £30,000, having made just one competitive appearance for us. He went on to win the old Second Division title with Boro in 1974 before a move to Liverpool in 1978. The Scottish international became one of the finest midfielders of a generation during his seven-year stay Anfield, where he won five league championships, three European Cups and four League Cups. A spell with Italian side Sampdoria followed before a successful period with Rangers as player-manager, where he won both the Scottish Premier Division title and Scottish League Cup in 1986/87.

After hanging up his boots in 1991, Souness returned to Liverpool as manager, where he won the FA Cup the following year. His 20-year-long managerial career also saw him hold the top jobs at Galatasaray, Torino, Benfica, Blackburn Rovers and Newcastle United. These days, he works as a pundit for Sky Sports.

ALSO FEATURING

Born in nearby Edmonton on 10 May, 1927, Henry William 'Harry' Robshaw progressed through our youth set-up prior to putting pen-to-paper on a professional contract with us in November 1948.

The half-back made his one and only senior appearance for us in our 3-2 home defeat by Liverpool on 1 December, 1951 as he stood in for the legendary Bill Nicholson in the First Division match. With Nicholson and Ron Burgess well established as our first-choice wing-halves around the time, Robshaw only featured in three further first team matches – all friendlies – against Racing Club de Paris (3 May, 1952), Ipswich Town (5 May, 1952) and Gloucester City (27 October, 1952).

Robshaw moved to Reading in 1953, as part of the deal that took Johnny Brooks to Spurs. The half-back scored once in 20 league matches for the Royals, while he also turned out for non-league side Tonbridge towards the end of his career. He passed away in 1990.

As we approached December 25, Toby Alderweireld received an early Christmas present as he signed a new contract with the Club to extend his stay in north London for another three-and-a-half years.

While the city of Antwerp will always be his first home, the Belgian admits N17 is somewhere that also holds the same sentiment; somewhere he feels he fits in and of which he feels a big part. So much so that he couldn't even contemplate wearing the colour of any other team.

Signing a new deal was just a simple decision for the centre-back since this Club means so much to him. Spurs is not just his job or employment, the whole Club matters to him; it is part of his fabric and his identity.

"People will see it as a cliché but from day one I've felt that I'm really wanted here – from the players and especially the fans as well. I'm very lucky to have such a good connection with them," he explained.

"And so, when you can't think about playing in another shirt, you definitely know you have a connection with the Club. It's on that sort of level where you don't want to leave.

"It's even when Spurs are spoken about. If there are negative or positive words about the Club, you feel that they are direct to you. If something is said, it doesn't feel like it is just about 'the Club,' you take it personally – that's when you know it means a lot to you.

"The more I thought about the decision, the clearer it became that I just wanted to stay."

"PEOPLE WILL SEE IT AS A CLICHÉ BUT FROM DAY ONE I'VE FELT THAT I'M REALLY WANTED HERE – FROM THE PLAYERS AND ESPECIALLY THE FANS AS WELL"

A remarkable part of Toby's game over the last two years has been his resilience on the pitch. Since returning from a hamstring injury at the end of the 2017/18 season, the defender has missed just 12 games for us, playing in 78 out of our last 90 outings.

In fact, since the start of the 2018/19 season, no player has made more appearances for us since the start of last season than Toby. Add in his appearances for his nation, the centre-back has played in a total of 102 games out of a possible 116. Under Head Coach

Jose Mourinho, he has played every single minute and, as we pull ourselves out of the flurry of festive fixtures, he explained how his preparation and certain sacrifices have enabled him to be repeatedly fit and available for so many games.

"I just try to be as professional as possible, try to eat the right things, rest in the right moments – I think my social life is below zero," he smiled. "But I think that is what you need to do to play all the matches, to play with the demand of games and especially with the World Cup in that time and the Euros coming up. In a season, the festive period is tough, but that's not the only busy period. With European matches and international games for your country, the campaign is from August to July. It's one long road.

"There is no social life. The only thing I enjoy when I am at home is spending time with my wife and kids. I can't travel to Belgium to see my family, that's part of it and a sacrifice I make to be fit, to be available and to play as much as I can. The more I travel, even if I am free and I go home to Belgium and meet up with the lads and go out, then in some way, you will pay for it.

"Over the season and a half, I think I have only missed one international game as well and that was because of the birth of my child. So, I just try to play as many games as possible and be available whenever I am needed."

With a seemingly unwavering consistency in his fitness, Toby is keen to also find a constancy in our performances on the pitch. It was an up-and-down period for us over Christmas with a mixed bag of results – three wins, two draws and four defeats since the start of December.

The defender knows we need to rediscover the form that we enjoyed in Jose Mourinho's first few weeks as manager if we are to finish in the top four places come May, but he feels it is only small things that need to be amended for us to get us firing once more.

> "WE KNOW THAT WE JUST HAVE TO WORK HARD AND THE POSITIVES WILL COME, BUT WE ALSO HAVE TO SEARCH FOR OUR OWN LUCK"

"We started well with Jose and of course, results haven't gone our way in the last couple of games, but we have to work hard at these things. It's progress and a project that we have to consider. These things do take time," he admitted.

"We lack a little bit of confidence as well. If a result goes our way, we will make the steps that we need to take to go forward. In some moments, if it goes a little bit more our way, then the confidence will come even more.

"At the moment, we are a little bit in the corner. For example, if you look at the second goal we conceded against Norwich. At that moment in the game, we were in a good period, we were putting them under pressure and only one team was going to win but then you concede an own goal like that and it changes the momentum. It's all about those moments.

"We know that we just have to work hard and the positives will come, but we also have to search for our own luck. We will work hard to improve, that is the key thing. It is very cliché and basic but that it is. Football is about little details. We still see ourselves in a position where we can achieve anything that we want but we have to be positive, as a positive mindset will change a lot."

DID YOU KNOW:

No player has made more appearances for us since the start of the 2018/19 season than Toby – joint with Christian Eriksen on 75 games.

And our number four is hoping that change will begin today as we welcome league leaders Liverpool to N17 for their first visit to our new home. Of course, he is not expecting an easy test, not in the slightest. Toby is well aware of how strong the Reds have been over the last 12 months – unbeaten in the Premier League to put it simply.

And coming up against a side that have scored 85 goals in that time with a forward line consisting of three strikers that finished in the Ballon d'Or's top 20, many defenders would be rightly concerned.

Yet, Toby has belief. He is not doubting that it will be a huge task for us to end Jurgen Klopp's side's unbeaten run, but he feels we have a good opportunity to do just that. Our meetings with the Merseyside outfit are always tight, and as he has already alluded to, it is the little details that can make all the difference.

"We have to show them a lot of respect, of course. They have been unbelievable. But perhaps it's a good moment for us to maybe change our momentum. If we get a good result at home, maybe that could be a turning point for us," he discussed.

"I think we have to get confidence from how we have played against them before. Earlier in the season, we lost by that late penalty at Anfield. I think about Sonny hitting the bar in that game and that could have made it 2-0 – that would have finished the contest. I think about Moussa Sissoko's chance to win it in the late stages away from home last season (we lost the game 2-1 in the dying minutes). Again, football is all details but hopefully, they will be on our side this evening.

"We have to be solid and punish them where we can. Up top, they are unbelievable, but I think with our front players like Sonny and Lucas, we can hurt them. That is what we need to do, because if Liverpool play their game and we only defend, it is going to be a very tough day.

"It's a big opportunity for us to change the momentum. If we can get a good result, we can take that into the next game and then we can kick on. It makes it a massive game."

SCENE SETTER

Previewing this afternoon's Premier League meeting with Liverpool, looking at the form guide, previous encounters and a whole host of vital statistics…

DID YOU KNOW?

We have gone 92 Premier League games without a goalless draw, the second longest run in the competition's history after Manchester United's run of 114.

PREVIOUS MEETINGS

v Liverpool

This afternoon will be the 56th Premier League clash between the two sides, let's take a look back at five of the best…

2011

Rafa van der Vaart gave us an early lead at Anfield and Luka Modric scored from the penalty spot as our last away game of 2010/11 ended in style.

2017

A thrilling win at Wembley as goals from Harry Kane, Heung-Min Son and Dele Alli put us 3-1 up at the break, Mo Salah responding for the Reds. Kane added another for a 4-1 win.

2000

A comeback win at the Lane as Robbie Fowler fired Liverpool ahead but goals from Les Ferdinand and Tim Sherwood had us in front by the interval and we held on to win.

1993

Our fourth game of the 1993/94 season saw us win 2-1 at Anfield. Nigel Clough scored for the Reds but a Teddy Sheringham brace turned the game in our favour.

1992

Our first-ever PL meeting with Liverpool ended a run of six games without a win in the competition, Nayim and future Red Neil Ruddock netting second-half goals at the Lane.

TOP DOGS

We have won six of our last 10 Premier League home games against teams starting the day top of the table.

JAN'S THE MAN

Jan Vertonghen has scored two PL goals against Liverpool – his joint-best tally in the competition alongside Swansea City.

HOME COMFORTS

We have only lost once in our last eight matches on home soil in the Premier League, scoring two or more goals in each of those victories.

HEAD TO HEAD

TEAM FORM

Spurs:	Liverpool:

We didn't enjoy the best of form over the festive season, winning just one of our four matches in the Premier League with that victory coming against Brighton. We followed that up with a draw at Norwich and defeat at Southampton, but started this weekend still in sixth place in the table and only six points off the top four.

Jurgen Klopp's side continue to set a searing pace at the top of the Premier League, having won 19 of their 20 matches so far. The only points they've dropped came in a 1-1 draw at Old Trafford in October and their tally of 58 points after 20 games is joint best with Manchester City, who achieved that in 2017/18.

The Netherlands international arrived at Anfield in January 2018 and sparked an immediate upturn in fortunes for Liverpool, seeing them reach the Champions League final in May of that year and win the competition the following season. The former Celtic and Southampton man also finished second in the Ballon d'Or prize for 2019.

Born in Senegal, Sadio Mane first played in Europe with French club Metz for two years ahead of a move to Red Bull Salzburg in 2014. Another two years later and he joined Southampton, quickly impressing in England with his pace and deadly finishing ability. While at the Saints, he also scored the Premier League's fastest hat-trick, in just two minutes and 56 seconds against Aston Villa in 2014/15. July 2016 saw him make the move to Anfield, where his performances have continued to improve. He currently has 74 goals to his name for Liverpool, including 26 last term, He's already on 11 league goals this season as the Reds romped to the top of the Premier League table. A Senegal international who has recorded 61 caps and 16 goals so far, he also helped them to the final of last year's African Cup of Nations.

The two-time African Player of the Year winner has been in sensational form for the Reds since his 2017 arrival from AS Roma. He hit 44 goals in his first season at the club, and added 27 in 2018/19. Forced off through injury in the 2018 Champions League final, he enjoyed redemption as the Reds won the competition the following year.

TRUE COLOURS

We all have our favourites when it comes to past Spurs kits and, sometimes, they can evoke memories of specific games, moments and the players who wore them. Continuing our series for the 2019/20 season, Billy Shaw chats to our players – past and present – to find out what comes into their minds when they look back at a selection of our shirts from seasons gone by. Today, long-serving defender and Belgium's most-capped international, Jan Vertonghen…

SPURS HOME KIT, 2012/13

"This is going back a bit – it's the shirt from the first season I was here at the Club," smiled Jan as he eyed up our 2012/13 home strip.

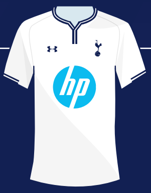
"It reminds me of White Hart Lane and a bunch of 'firsts' – my first game against West Brom (1-1 draw) and then also when we went to Manchester United and won there for the first time in many years."

The visit to Old Trafford Jan is referring to – a 3-2 triumph in September, 2012 – was indeed our first victory on that ground in 23 seasons and was a rip-roaring encounter that saw us score twice in the early stages before a three-minute flurry of goals in the second period, Clint Dempsey's effort sandwiched in between two for United.

It was also the first time we saw the Belgian international defender's 'Super Jan' celebration in the Premier League following his deflected strike that was later ruled as a Jonny Evans own goal by the dubious goals panel. Gareth Bale scored our second.

The kit in question here was an all-Lilywhite number with silver trim, deviating from our traditional navy shorts, and was the first of our Under Armour-supplied strips.

However, with United wearing white shorts for that Old Trafford classic, we did actually run out with navy shorts on that particular occasion and in a small handful of other fixtures over the course of that campaign too.



SPURS HOME KIT, 2013/14

Jan came up with a name we don't often hear mention of in this column when we turned to a photo of our 2013/14 home kit.

"I don't know why but I have to think about Paulinho!" he smiled. "I remember him scoring a goal in this shirt – he's the first one that comes to mind.

"He scored a few goals but I seem to think that most of them were away. It's either a goal that I'm thinking of or a picture of him somewhere with this shirt on!"

If it is indeed a goal that Jan is referring to, the exact one remains a mystery. A quick look into the archives shows that our former Brazilian international midfielder scored eight times in all competitions during the season in question, but six of those were away. And of those six, four were played in our change colours, with the other two – against Dinamo Tbilisi in the Europa League and Aston Villa in the League Cup – played using the cup version of the home shirt, which featured the AIA logo on the front, rather than the blue HP sponsor logo we saw in the Premier League, which is the shirt we're looking at here.

That narrows it down to two home Premier League goals for Paulinho in this apparel – one in a 3-1 win against Fulham and another in a 3-0 triumph over Aston Villa, both of which came towards the end of that season. The only problem is, Jan didn't feature in either of them!

SPURS THIRD KIT, 2016/17

"Away somewhere. Which one am I thinking of?" pondered Jan when he looked at our third strip from the 2016/17 campaign, our last season at White Hart Lane.

After a brief moment's reflection, it hit him…

"Yes, I'm going to say the two goals that Sonny scored at Middlesbrough quite early in the season. I just saw those goals on social media a few days ago before we went there again for the FA Cup last week. Two good goals!"

Jan's not wrong.

It was back in September, 2016, that we last went to The Riverside for a Premier League game and, clad in this all-gold number with dark pinstripes running down the front of the shirt, Sonny was on fire.

The South Korean international shaped to shoot twice in the area before firing us ahead, then made it 2-0 when he wriggled out of a tight position and curled in from edge of the box inside the first quarter of the game.

Ben Gibson scored for Boro after the break but we ran out 2-1 winners, securing our best start in the top flight for 51 years.

Moving onto our home kit from 2015/16, which featured a prominent navy blue sash down the front of the Lilywhite shirt.

"This one just reminds me of White Hart Lane," said Jan. "Whenever I see shirts made by Under Armour it makes me think of the Lane – I don't know why!

"To pick out a memorable game with this kit, it would probably be when we played Manchester United at home.

"It was a game we had to win and we did that well, 3-0 in the end."

Dele Alli, Toby Alderweireld and Erik Lamela were our goalscorers in April, 2016, as we blew United away with three second-half goals, all within the space of six minutes.

Kick-off had to be delayed owing to the Red Devils' late arrival at the ground, but we took full command to keep up our pursuit of Leicester City at the top of the table.

The game also marked Jan's return to the side after nearly three months out with a knee injury, the Belgian international coming straight back into the team alongside compatriot Alderweireld, at the expense of Kevin Wimmer.

FA YOUTH CUP: WIGAN ATHLETIC 2-0 SPURS

A goal in each half gave Wigan Athletic a 2-0 victory in Wednesday night's FA Youth Cup fourth round tie at the DW Stadium.

With 11 straight wins in all competitions going into the match, the hosts forged ahead via Jensen Weir's deflected free-kick after a controversial refereeing decision against Malachi Fagan-Walcott and we never truly recovered.

Needing to get to grips with a direct side always dangerous on the counter, we upped our game after half-time with midfielder Harvey White covering a lot of ground and having a couple of attempts himself. But when Kyle Joseph rammed home after Sean McGurk had hit the crossbar in Wigan's first real attack of the second half just beyond the hour mark, the hosts put themselves in a strong position from which we were unable to dislodge them.

Wigan Tickle, Jolley (c), Robinson, Carragher, Isherwood, Adeeko, McGurk (Devine 88), Weir, Joseph, Gelhardt (Costello 90+4), O'Neil. Substitutes (not used): Jones, Broe, Hughes, Lloyd, Brown.

Spurs: Lo-Tutala, Muir, Cirkin, White, Fagan-Walcott (c), Binks, Whittaker, Robson, Etete, Pedder (Skinner 70), Bennett. Substitutes (not used): Kurylowicz, Solberg, Mundle, Lusala, Cassanova.

WHITE'S WHITES DOUBLE

A brace from Harvey White helped our Under-18s get their year off to the perfect start with a 4-1 Under-18 Premier League win over Fulham last Saturday morning.

Taking the lead on 17 minutes at Hotspur Way via the midfielder's spot-kick following a foul on Max Robson, our youngsters quickly extended their advantage to 3-0 in the opening minutes of the second half thanks to Romaine Mundle's first goal of the season (46) and a second penalty from White (54) after J'Neil Bennett was brought down. Fulham did pull a goal back with 12 minutes to go through Jean-Pierre Tiehi but we replied almost immediately with substitute Tarrelle Whittaker restoring our three-goal advantage to seal the win just four minutes later.

Spurs: Lo-Tutala, Muir, Lusala, White, Fagan-Walcott, Binks, Mundle (Mathurin 86), Robson (Skinner 78), Etete (Whittaker 78), Pedder, Bennett. Substitutes (not used): Kurylowicz, Santiago.

STUNNING COMEBACK AGAINST FOXES

Three goals in eight second-half minutes completely turned the game around as our Under-18s battled back from 3-1 down to win 4-3 at Leicester City in their final outing before Christmas on 21 December.

Struggling in the opening 45 minutes, we trailed at the break to goals from Leicester's Liam Loughlin, Kian Pennant and a penalty from Sidnei Tavares, Kion Etete on target for us.

But we reacted superbly in the second half, an increase in work rate coupled with the positive influence off the bench of attacker Enock Asante seeing us claim victory. Max Robson made it 3-2, Dennis Cirkin grabbed his second goal in as many league games and J'Neil Bennett completed the turnaround.

Spurs: Lo-Tutala, Cesay, Cirkin, White, Lusala, Binks, Whittaker (Asante 56 (Mundle 90)), Robson (Skinner 85), Etete, Pedder, Bennett. Substitutes (not used): Kurylowicz, Carrington.

Matthew in action against Norwich as twin Michael looks on!

FIVE THINGS TO KNOW ABOUT... MATTHEW CRAIG

1. A central midfielder who can also fill in at centre-half, Matthew Craig joined our Under-18s full-time in the summer alongside his identical twin brother Michael. Born in Barnet on 16 April, 2003, the pair attended Dame Alice Owen's School in Potters Bar. Matthew began training with us at Under-12 level and is just returning to action after a spell out with an injury.

2. How does Matthew deal with being an identical twin in the same football team as his brother? "I quite enjoy it," he said. "I'm lucky because I get on with my brother really well so you always have someone to speak to if you need to and if you want to go out and do something you've always got someone to go with. If he doesn't want to do something I'll pester him into it!" Elsewhere in the family, Matthew's grandad is former Notts County forward Ron Still, while his father David played non-league football for Cockfosters and Cheshunt. "I play for Scotland at youth level – both my grandads are Scottish," added Matthew.

3. In the first team, Matthew looks up to Harry Winks: "He always looks alert and on his toes, he never seems to give the ball away and he's always trying to do the right things with it," he said. "Harry is a great example of where you can get to if you try hard enough and develop your skills."

4. Before joining us full-time, Matthew got the chance to meet Harry Kane: "He came to our school for the national cup a few years ago," he said. "We got to the quarter-finals in year seven and he came along as a guest – he was just starting to establish himself as a top star then. We got lucky because he came to our school – other schools got players from other clubs."

5. Matthew names FIFA, Madden and NBA 2K20 as his top three video games. "I like to keep up with NFL and basketball," he said. "The Atlanta Falcons are my team in the NFL, probably because they're the first team I watched. I'd like to get along to watch a game live in the next year or so if I can."

PREMIER LEAGUE 2: SPURS 0-1 CHELSEA

Chelsea bagged an 82nd-minute winner against the run of play as our Under-23s slipped to a 1-0 defeat in their opening game of 2020 on Monday evening.

We'd seemed on course to take at least a point after a hard-working display all over the pitch against a visiting side unbeaten all season in the Premier League 2, Tashan Oakley-Boothe, Shilow Tracey, Rodel Richards and substitute Phoenix Patterson narrowly off-target with their attempts at goal.

But a momentary lapse in concentration allowed Armando Broja to steal in down the right channel and lash high past Brandon Austin at the near post to give his side the victory at Stevenage's Lamex Stadium.

Spurs: Austin, Okedina (R Clarke 89), Hinds, Thorpe (Patterson 70), Eyoma (c), Lyons-Foster, Markanday, Oakley-Boothe, Richards, Shashoua, Tracey. Substitutes (not used): Oluwayemi, Dinzeyi, Pochettino.

Chelsea: Cumming, Lawrence, Wakely, Guehi (c), Maatsen, Mola, Broja, McEachran, Brown (Simons 90+2), Ballo (Russell 46), Uwakwe (Bate 80). Substitutes (not used): Ziger, Simeu.

Shilow Tracey gets his shot away against Chelsea

LATE PAIN FOR WAYNE

Under-23s Coach Wayne Burnett wasn't hiding his disappointment after seeing his side ship a late goal to lose at home to Chelsea on Monday.

"It was a game of very few chances, both teams if we're being honest lacked a little bit of quality in the final third, I thought we had the slightly better chances or were in the better positions but didn't really capitalise, I thought only one goal would win it and I'm really disappointed that we haven't at least come away with a draw – I think a draw would have been a fair result," he said.

"There were some positives to take from it in terms of performances, but we've come away without scoring and having conceded. At times we played well and dominated the ball but there were limited chances for both teams. We haven't defended well enough on that action (for Chelsea's goal) and we've conceded so we're very, very disappointed."

WHITEMAN SIGNS NEW CONTRACT

We recently announced that goalkeeper Alfie Whiteman has signed a new contract with the Club, which will run until 2022.

The 21-year-old, born and raised in the Tottenham area, is a product of our Academy system and has appeared on the first team substitutes' bench on a number of occasions in recent seasons, including five times during the current campaign to date.

Alfie has also made five appearances for our Development Squad in all competitions so far this season, including two outings against senior EFL sides in the Leasing.com Trophy.

DUO STAY ON LOAN

George Marsh and Jack Roles will remain on loan with their respective League Two clubs until the end of the season, it was confirmed this week.

George, a 21-year-old central midfielder, linked up with Leyton Orient in August and has made 16 appearances for them in all competitions to date, starting their last six consecutive games prior to today's clash with Grimsby Town.

Similarly, 20-year-old attacking midfielder Jack has been with Cambridge United since August and has made 21 appearances in all competitions for them so far, scoring four goals, including the winner at home to Morecambe recently.

Meanwhile, Jack Clarke (Leeds United), Cameron Carter-Vickers (Stoke City) and Kazaiah Sterling (Doncaster Rovers) have been recalled from their respective loan spells.

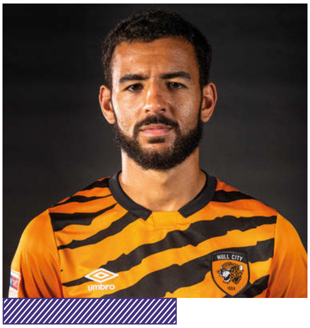
Profiling former Academy players who made the grade as a pro after leaving our youth set-up…

KEVIN STEWART

Enfield-born Kevin Stewart joined our Academy on a full-time basis in the summer of 2010 and appeared 27 times in his first season with our Under-18s.

He featured regularly for our youth and development sides over the next few years, mostly as a right-back, and appeared on the substitutes' bench for the first team in Europa League ties away to PAOK and Rubin Kazan in 2011/12, and Panathinaikos at home the following season. In March, 2013, Kevin moved on loan to Crewe Alexandra and made his Football League debut against Preston on 1 April, before leaving us permanently in July, 2014, to join Liverpool on a free transfer.



Three further loan spells followed while at Anfield – as he featured for Cheltenham Town, Burton Albion and Swindon – before he made his Liverpool debut in their FA Cup third round tie at Exeter City on 8 January, 2016.

Kevin's first Premier League appearance came the following month when he replaced Philippe Coutinho in the Reds' 6-0 win over Aston Villa and he ended up playing 20 times for Liverpool before a move to Hull City in July, 2017.

Now a defensive midfielder, he scored his first two goals for the Tigers in a 3-0 win against Luton in September, 2019, and has played over 60 times for the club.

Rianna Dean slots home her penalty against City

WOMEN DEFEATED BY CLINICAL CITY

Spurs Women made a disappointing start to the new year with a 4-1 league defeat to a clinical Manchester City side at The Hive last Sunday afternoon.

A slow start cost us dearly as a quickfire double from Pauline Bremer and Ellen White had the visitors 2-0 up inside five minutes.

A Rianna Dean penalty brought us back into the game, until City went on to score two more and secure three points.

Head Coaches Karen Hills and Juan Amoros named an unchanged starting line-up from our last league outing against Reading in December with new signing Emma Mitchell named on the bench.

The visitors made a ferocious start and almost took the lead within the opening 90 seconds when Lauren Hemp had a shot saved well by Becky Spencer.

They made the early pressure count soon after though, when Bremer turned a clever cutback from White into the far corner in the second minute.

City doubled their advantage three minutes later when White let fly from range and saw her effort find the corner past Spencer.

In the 27th minute, Dean was bundled over in the box by City captain Steph Houghton before she stepped up to take the penalty and made no mistake from 12 yards by smashing the ball into the bottom left corner to halve the deficit.

But seven minutes later, the visitors scored again as Bremer got her second of the match by slotting Hemp's cross into the back of the net.

Hemp herself got on the scoresheet just before the interval after White laid the ball off for her to squeeze past Spencer for City's fourth.

Hills and Amoros introduced

Substitute Rosella Ayane on the attack

Lucy Quinn and debutant Mitchell into the mix at the break in an attempt to turn the tide of the game and despite improvements in our play in the second half, we simply couldn't rally back against a strong City side.

At full-time, Amoros admitted that our display in the first half wasn't up to the high standards we set ourselves. "We're disappointed, especially with the way we started the game, two goals in five minutes is just unacceptable for us as a team," he said.

"In the second half, we adapted a couple of things and made two changes and I think our performance after the break was much better. They're a very good side but still we need to be better because we are Tottenham Hotspur Women and the girls know that we are good enough to compete against these teams, but we need to make sure we do it throughout the 90 minutes."

Spurs: Spencer, Percival, Green (c), Filbey, Davison, Peplow (Quinn 46), Dean, Worm (Mitchell 46), Graham (Ayane 77), Godfrey, Neville. Substitutes (not used): Morgan, Leon, Schillaci, Addison.

City: Roebuck, Campbell (Stokes 67), Bonner, Houghton (c), Beckie, Weir, Walsh, Hemp, Scott, Bremer (Coombs 84), White (Stanway 77). Substitutes (not used): Benameur, Geum-min, Wullaert, Fidalgo.

MITCHELL ARRIVES AFTER FURNESS DEPARTS

Last week, Spurs Women announced the signing of Emma Mitchell, who joins the Club on loan from Arsenal until the end of the season.

The transfer news came a week after midfielder Rachel Furness was recalled from her loan spell by Reading, before later joining Liverpool.

Emma, who will wear the number 21 shirt for us, made her debut against Manchester City last Sunday when she came off the bench at half-time in our 4-1 loss at The Hive.

The versatile player, who can operate as a defender and in midfield, began her senior career with Scottish Women's Premier League side Glasgow City FC in 2008, where she spent four successful years, winning nine trophies including four league titles.

Before she joined Arsenal in 2013, Emma had a four-month spell in Germany with Bundesliga side SGS Essen.

The 27-year-old made 15 appearances for the Gunners in their title-winning campaign last season and has featured for them on five occasions this season.

A Scottish international, Emma has represented her country at every level, captained both the Under-17s and Under-19s and has 60 senior caps.

Following her arrival at the Club, Emma said: "I'm really pleased to be here, it's going to be a new challenge for me and I'm looking forward to being part of the squad. After speaking to Karen and Juan, it felt like the best opportunity for me to come here and get some minutes under my belt which is a big focus for me in the new year and it will be nice to be part of helping the team get more points on the board."

BARNSLEY AWAIT IN FA CUP

Spurs Women have been drawn at home to Barnsley Women's FC in the fourth round of the Women's FA Cup.

The FA Women's National League Division One North side defeated Brighouse Town 1-0 last Sunday (5 January) to reach the next stage of the competition.

Ties are scheduled to be played on Sunday 26 January.

Ticket details and confirmation of kick-off time for this fixture will follow in due course.

YOUNGSTERS ENJOY PREMIER FUN

Christmas came early for 120 young footballers who took part in our Premier Day on 23 December at Hotspur Way, as part of the Club's Player Development Programme.

This elite football training experience was delivered by club coaches using the renowned methods delivered within our Academy, and those taking part got the chance to meet Ledley King, Oliver Skipp and Tottenham Hotspur Women players Rianna Dean and Anna Filbey.

There were also football freestylers and a DJ keeping the youngsters entertained throughout the action-packed day at our world-class Training Centre. At the end of the event, all participants were gifted a replica home kit.

Our Player Development Programmes are offered across London, Essex and Hertfordshire during school holidays as well as on evenings during term time. Each programme is planned and delivered by our Global Football Development and Academy coaches, who take inspiration and specific content used by our First Team and Academy. The players learn all aspects of the game, including goalscoring, one-v-one domination and possession.

There are a limited number of spaces remaining at our Evening Player Development Programmes, however our renowned courses are selling fast – book now to avoid disappointment.

THREE CHEERS FOR NEW BEER!

Tottenham Hotspur and our Official Craft Beer Supplier, Beavertown, yesterday launched a new collaboration beer in time for our first home game of 2020.

Brewed and sold exclusively in Tottenham Hotspur Stadium, 'One Of Our Own' (4.9% ABV) has its roots in the classic British IPA, rebuilt with Beavertown's own modern hoppy DNA, made up of purely European hops (Callista, Mandarina Bavaria and Barbe Rouge), with notes of stonefruit and rounded with hints of malt-sweetness.

'One Of Our Own' is produced using the microbrewery operated by Tottenham-based Beavertown inside the Club's new home – a world first for any football stadium.

The collaboration beer has been brewed with our fans in mind – matching the preferences of the Craft Beer products supporters have favoured since the stadium opened last April.

Tom Rainsford, a Spurs fan who recently joined Beavertown as Marketing Director, came up with the name 'One Of Our Own' having been inspired by the Craft Beer offering at Tottenham Hotspur Stadium.

Rainsford said: "Beavertown's Neck Oil is already a half-time favourite, and we wanted to add to this by offering something new at the start of 2020. Supporting a club is in your bones and this beer feels the same. It's familiar, yet distinct. A satisfying pint that makes you feel at home.

"We see Spurs as the beating heart of the Tottenham community, a central hub for football fans and residents alike. We both share values of bringing people together, creating revolutionary experiences and even world firsts like our microbrewery inside the stadium."

'One Of Our Own' will be available to fans for the first time at today's huge Premier League clash against table-topping Liverpool – available to purchase from the Beavertown Tottenham Taproom in the South Stand, as well as bars located throughout the stadium.

The partnership with Beavertown is an example of how the Club has embraced its community within the new stadium by supporting local businesses that employ local people.

Beavertown is the largest independent craft brewer in London and sits at the heart of London's growing craft beer scene. They arrived in Tottenham in 2014, having outgrown two previous brewery sites, and have made it their home ever since.

Now seven years old, Beavertown began life on a 650L kit in a BBQ joint in Haggerston, but is currently brewing in 5,500L batches and producing around 9,000,000 pints a year with a new brewery opening in March - capable of 90,000,000 pints.

Beavertown is the winner of two gold medals at the International Beer Challenge for core range beers Gamma Ray and Neck Oil – both of which have become popular with Spurs fans on home matchdays at the new stadium.

SUPPORTING #ZEROSUICIDELDN

By the time the final whistle has gone today, at least one person in the UK will have taken their own life.

Sadly, every 90 minutes we lose someone to suicide. It is the leading cause of death in people aged 15-29 years and the biggest killer of men under 49 in the UK. We lose 12 Londoners every week to suicide and we need to work together to prevent this.

Tottenham Hotspur is supporting the #ZeroSuicideLDN campaign and we are encouraging our fans to take the free suicide prevention online training. It only takes 20 minutes to complete.

The campaign is being driven by the Zero Suicide Alliance and London's mental health movement Thrive LDN to improve the mental health of all Londoners and to make the capital a zero suicide city. Partners include the Mayor of London, the NHS, Metropolitan Police, British Transport Police, London Fire Brigade, London Councils, Charities and many more.

The Mayor of London, Sadiq Khan, said: "Suicide is a tragedy, for those who take their own life and for the loved ones they leave behind. It's important that we break the stigma of talking about suicide so we can all play our part in helping those in need.

"That's why I'm delighted that Tottenham Hotspur has joined our campaign to encourage people take this free online suicide prevention training. Together, by having more open and honest conversations we can support each other and move closer to achieving our ultimate ambition of becoming a zero-suicide city."

The training can be accessed at: https://www.thriveldn.co.uk/campaigns/zerosuicideldn/.

This time of year can be an especially challenging and lonely time, so please join us and tell your friends, co-workers and families about it too. It could save a life.

AT THE BACK POST

What does the name Liverpool stir in the memory of club historian John Fennelly? We find out.

BOB PAISLEY

Liverpool's friendliness as a club was illustrated to me as a young football journalist in the late 70s. You could call the club's main switchboard, ask for the player's room and invariably talk directly with the man you sought.

After training one day, I did exactly that and manager Bob Paisley answered the phone. It gave me the opportunity to ask him for a comment on the fact that he now had a newly promoted full international in his squad.

"Oh, everyone's got a cap these days," laughed Bob. "Even me – I've got a flat one!"

He was a legend and a lovely man. And like our own Bill Nicholson, he won the championship as player and manager with the same club.

MARTIN CHIVERS

Martin Chivers scored three times against Liverpool in season 1972/73 at a time when the men from Anfield were beginning to assert their dominance at home and abroad.

The Reds would lift the title for a record eighth time plus the UEFA Cup at the end of that term in what was Bill Shankly's penultimate season as manager. And they would continue that form as Bob Paisley seamlessly moved into the hot seat.

Big Chiv scored for us when the two sides met at the Lane in the November but goals by Steve Heighway and Kevin Keegan saw Liverpool win 2-1. Keegan was also on target in the March return at Anfield where Alan Gilzean's goal gave us a 1-1 draw.

We had also drawn 1-1 there - on our way to lifting the League Cup that term - at the fifth round stage in December where Emlyn Hughes and Martin Peters shared the goals. Chivers then netted twice in the replay, John Pratt and Ian Callaghan also scoring in our 3-1 triumph.

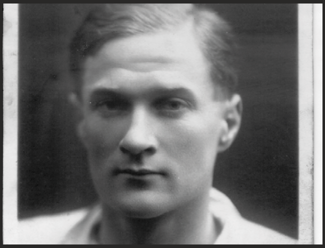
FRANK OSBORNE



England centre-forward Frank Osborne was something of a hat-trick specialist. And the three he scored against Liverpool at White Hart Lane in October 1925 was the start of a hat-trick of hat-tricks.

After bagging all three in that 3-1 Division One defeat of the Reds, we then travelled to Leicester City where the South Africa born Frank did it again – although we lost 5-3! His third trio arrived in the next game, a 4-2 home win over West Ham United.

Osborne finished the season as our top scorer with 27 goals in league and cup, but he was eclipsed by future Spur Ted Harper who banged in 43 for Blackburn to claim the league crown.

4 STEVE ARCHIBALD

We looked set to win our third League Cup in 1982 as the minutes ticked away at Wembley. But it was all so nervous as that season's champions Liverpool hammered away at a Spurs back door defended by their former goalkeeper Ray Clemence who had joined us at the start of that season.

Steve Archibald had given us an 11th minute against the Reds who were determined to hang on to the trophy they had won the season before.

True the pressure was building relentlessly yet as the clock hit 87 minutes, I began to believe that we would do it.

But then Ronnie Whelan pounced to send the game into extra time where Whelan again and Ian Rush made it 3-1.

RAY CLEMENCE

Razor was hiring out deckchairs on Skegness beach when a family member approached and told him that Liverpool had called the Clemence home looking for him.

It was 1967 and Clem was doing a bit of summer work after playing the previous season with Scunthorpe. Now the Anfield club wanted to sign the 18-year-old.

I've often wondered who collected in those deckchairs at the end of his shift? "I've no idea," Ray told me. "I never went back!"

6 SONNY WALTERS

We had the better of the exchanges when the two sides met in Division One during the 1953/54 campaign.

Alf Ramsey and Sonny Walters both scored when we won 2-1 at the Lane. Bill Jones replied. And we drew 2-2 at Anfield where strikes by Billy Liddell and John Evans cancelled out another Walters effort plus a Frank Lock own goal.

It wasn't a great season for either side – particularly Liverpool who went down as the division's bottom club. It didn't help that Everton were one of the promoted sides!

JIMMY GREAVES

Jimmy Greaves scored four times when we beat Liverpool 7-2 at the Lane in April 1963. It was a remarkable response as we had just lost 5-2 at Anfield three days before!

We hit 111 goals in Division One that season as we finished runners-up to Everton. And Greaves top scored for us with 37. Newly promoted Liverpool were eighth but would win the Championship the following year.

Meanwhile we also became the first British side to lift a European trophy when we won the Cup Winners' Cup.

The final run-in was a very busy time for the domestic game as 'The Big Freeze of 63' forced many cancellations and we managed just one league game in both January and February. As a result, we had to play on well into May. In fact, after travelling back from Anfield after that defeat, we entertained Fulham the following day!

CHRISTIAN ZIEGE

The German international boasted a tremendous CV as a player with Bayern Munich and AC Milan on the list before he reached Liverpool and then Tottenham.

One of the best attacking wing-backs in the world in his prime, he left Middlesbrough for Anfield in the summer of 2000 and then on to Spurs the following year. He had pace, crossed well, hit a powerful shot and was also a free-kick specialist.

Ziege scored our goal in the 2002 League Cup Final.

A warm welcome to the following Spurs fans:

Hannes Heide, who has been a fan since going to his first match at White Hart Lane in 1981, and is at today's game. Hannes recently left his post as Mayor of the Austrian city of Bad Ischl and wore a Spurs shirt as he said farewell after 12 years in the role!

Four-year-old Noah Harvey, who is attending his first Spurs game today and is with four generations of his family including Michael Harvey, Stephanie Bowman, Paul Cohen and Tony Bowman.

Lifelong fan Jørgen Vohlert Rasmussen, who has travelled over from Denmark for his first visit to our new ground with Klaus Møller.

Richie Dormer, who is attending his first game at the new stadium today at the age of 76.

Helge and Hans Peder Anonsen, who are making their first visit to the stadium today and are in our Premium Seats.

NEW ADDITIONS

Welcoming young Spurs supporters

This is Bobby Jackson, who was born on 2 August last year to proud parents Charlotte and Alan.

Emily Priestley was born on 25 September last year and is pictured with five-year-old sister Evie, while mum Katie, a North Stand season ticket holder, celebrates her birthday on Tuesday.

Max Applebee was born on 10 September last year in Melbourne, Australia, to proud parents Gaby and Allan.

Amarii Julie Simpson was born on 19 December to proud mum and Spurs fan Jenna. She is pictured with cousins Hugo and Nelly, while granddad Mick and uncle Lee are at today's game.

New Spurs fan Amelia White was born on 19 December to delighted and proud parents Charlotte and Adam, both South Stand season ticket holders.

CONGRATULATIONS

Congratulations to Spurs members Jack Castleton and Jodie Abrams, who got engaged just before Christmas and are both at today's game.

Congratulations to Daniel and Laura Cavaglieri, who celebrate their first wedding anniversary tomorrow.

OBITUARIES

We were sorry to hear of the passing of the following Spurs supporters:

Joe Rimington McCallum, who sadly passed away on 2 December, aged 16. A huge Tottenham fan, along with the rest of his family, he was born with a life-limiting illness, but it didn't stop him from taking part in activities and days out. In 2016, Harry Kane visited Joe's house and helped out with the family's housework as part of the partnership between Spurs and Noah's Ark Children's Hospice. It was a day that the whole family describes as their 'best day ever'. Joe will be greatly missed by all who knew him.

Liam Evans, who sadly passed away on 12 December at the age of 14. A supporter for most of his life, his favourite player was Heung-Min Son. He will be deeply missed by all his family and friends.

Terry Watson, who was the club's first Lottery Manager back in the 1960s, passed away on 26 November, aged 80. A lifelong supporter along with most of his family, he will be sadly missed by all his friends and family.

Lifelong Spurs fan Terence White, who sadly passed away on 31 December. A dad, granddad and great-granddad, he had so many happy memories watching us play along with three generations of his family.

South Stand Season ticket holder Roger Brown would like to pay tribute to his mother, Margaret Brown, who died just before Christmas, aged 85. She was widowed 13 years ago after her husband Tom died. Since then she has kept alive his wish of supporting Spurs. She will be sadly missed by her sons Roger and Andrew Brown and the entire Brown family of Spurs supporters.

In loving memory of a very special friend, Terry Sussex, a true Spurs supporter in every way, who sadly passed away suddenly on 22 December. Forever in our hearts 'Big Tel', love you always, Jan and Tim.

Yvonne Tutt, who sadly passed away on 7 December following a sudden heart attack, at the age of 53. She worked in the Stratus West bar as a member of our premium steward events team and always had a 'Spurs Me' smile for her team-mates and our guests alike. She will be sadly missed by her fellow colleagues. Yvonne has been survived by her partner Mark, a steward co-ordinator at the club.

We would like to extend our condolences to their families and friends at this sad time.

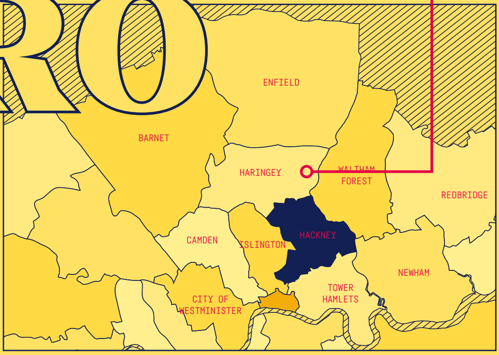
LOCAL HERO

PLAYER NAME:
WALTER BELLAMY
D.O.B: 06.11.04
POSITION: WINGER
LEAGUE APPEARANCES: 70
BORN IN: TOTTENHAM



Looking back on players spotted by Spurs playing locally in schools' football – and who went on to appear in our first team. John Fennelly details the career of Walter Bellamy

Winger Walter Bellamy made his Spurs debut against today's visitors Liverpool at Anfield in April 1927. It was our penultimate game of another disappointing season. Former Spur Billy Minter had just taken over as manager from Peter McWilliam and was trying out his squad options in the hopes of lifting us away from our seemingly regular existence as a mid-table Division One side.

Minter had been coaching at White Hart Lane at the time of his promotion so had that added inside knowledge of who deserved a senior chance. Bellamy was certainly in that category and stepped up for his Anfield bow alongside fellow reserve, giant goalkeeper Joe Nicholls.

Indeed, Minter opted for four debutants as that disappointing season came to an end while his predecessor McWilliam had gone for just one – John Blair on the opening day of the campaign. And Billy's best decision was the promotion of Taffy O'Callaghan who would go on to play for Wales and give Spurs such excellent service.

We lost by the only goal at Anfield that day and then concluded a lacklustre season with a 4-0 home defeat by neighbours Arsenal. And our new manager's first full season in charge didn't go too well either – we were relegated to Division Two!

Throughout that time, Bellamy struggled to establish himself in the side – although he clearly demonstrated good consistency when he had his opportunities in the side as most of his appearances came in clusters when he obviously did well enough to hold his place once he got in there.

He was a typical player of his time. Probably happier as an amateur which suited the preference of many of his peers. True you needed to make a living but being paid to play a sport still grated with some players and that attitude continued to prevail in certain parts of society despite Walter's career being played out between the two world wars when so much else was changing.

UEFA CHAMPIONS LEAGUE

Born in Tottenham in November 1904, Bellamy had enjoyed a good deal of success in the amateur game. He was associated with us for a long time on an unpaid basis before turning professional at the Lane in February 1927. He also played for Ilford and Tufnell Park before his career took off with Dulwich Hamlet where he won many honours.

He represented the FA, Middlesex and the Isthmian League before winning England amateur caps in two games against Ireland. He also played for the Amateurs against the Professionals in the FA Charity Shield in 1925 and 1926.

In the first one, coincidentally at White Hart Lane, Bellamy set up the opening goal for Corinthian Claude Ashton as the Amateurs won 6-1. His future Spurs team mates Cecil Poynton and Jack Elkes played for the Pros that day. And he also helped set up a goal for Wilfred Minter the following year as his side won 6-3 at Maine Road, Manchester.

Bellamy's speciality was direct running out wide and sending over accurate crosses for the big men in the middle. It was a crucial if simple ingredient in Minter's own footballing philosophy as he showed by also having international wingers Jimmy Dimmock and Willie Evans in his squad. Yet the irony for Bellamy was that their presence naturally reduced his own first team opportunities.

Bellamy had already made his Spurs debut before he turned professional. It came at Millwall in a London FA Charity Cup first round game that we lost 5-2. Having then signed pro forms, he stepped up against Liverpool, but fellow winger Dick Edmed ruined his day with the home side's winner.

Bellamy made three appearances in Percy Smith's promotion-winning 'Greyhounds' side of 1933 and then five more as we finished third in the top flight the following season. But our injury-hit side went down again at the end of the next campaign – and both Smith and Bellamy departed as Jack Tresadern took charge.

After eight years at the Lane, Walter was released and joined Brighton, then of Division Three (South). He was not retained at the end of his first season.

During the Second World War he served in Gibraltar and played league football for the local New Camp side. Sadly, while playing golf in Hadley Wood in 1978, he died, just before his 74th birthday.

AWAY MATCH

Stephen Clemence was born in Liverpool just three years before his father Ray opted to leave Anfield and move to White Hart Lane in the summer of 1981.

The mini Clem soon established his own footballing reputation as a neat and busy midfielder with good skills and anticipation. He was already part of our junior section when he represented England Schools and won caps at Youth level when he graduated to the FA National School of Excellence. He subsequently played for the Under-21s.

He stepped up from Associated Schoolboy status at Tottenham to join our Trainee staff in July 1994, turning professional within less than a year. Stephen made his first senior appearance on tour in 1997 ahead of his debut at home to Manchester United on the opening day of the 1997-98 season alongside fellow new boys Les Ferdinand and David Ginola.

He left us for Birmingham at the start of 2003 where he did well for four years before switching to Leicester City. Clemence moved into coaching with former Blues boss Steve Bruce and that association has since continued at Hull City, Aston Villa, Sheffield Wednesday and Newcastle.

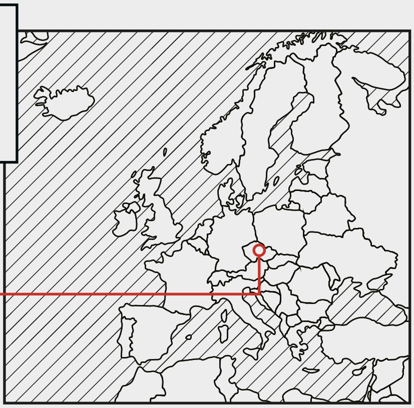
EURO ZONE



● CZECH REPUBLIC

Capital: Prague
Language: Czech

Ahead of UEFA Euro 2020, Andy Greeves offers the lowdown on various nations that will be appearing at the European Championships as it celebrates its 60th anniversary. Today he takes a look at Jaroslav Silhavy's Czech Republic.

FORM GUIDE

The Czech Republic secured qualification to UEFA Euro 2020 by finishing as runners-up in qualifying Group A. Jaroslav Silhavy's side won five of their eight qualifying fixtures and inflicted England's only group defeat as goals from Jajub Brabec and Zdenek Ondrasek gave them a 2-1 victory over the Three Lions in Prague on 11 October, 2019. A 2-1 win over Kosovo the following month confirmed the Czech Republic's seventh-consecutive appearance at the finals of the European Championships.

KEY PLAYER

Prague-born forward Patrik Schick scored four of the Czech Republic's 13 goals in qualifying, including a brace in a 2-1 victory over Bulgaria on 7 June, 2019. The 23-year-old – who is currently on a season-long loan with our next UEFA Champions League opponents, RB Leipzig – netted on his senior international debut against Malta in May 2016. He has scored a total of nine goals in 19 appearances for his country to date.

SPURS CONNECTION

We have faced three different clubs from the Czech Republic and the former Czechoslovakia in European competition to date.

Our maiden season in the European Cup in 1961/62 saw us face Dukla Prague in a two-legged quarter-final tie. Rudolf Kucera's 59th minute goal gave Dukla a 1-0 victory in the first leg at the Stadion Dynama in Prague on 14 February, 1962. Bill Nicholson's side found themselves 2-1 up on aggregate just 15 minutes into the second leg at White Hart Lane. Bobby Smith converted after John White flicked on a Danny Blanchflower free-kick for the opener on the night, while Dave Mackay found the back of the Dukla net moments later with a vicious right-foot shot. Smith and Mackay also scored in the second-half to complete a 4-1 win and a 4-2 aggregate triumph.

A strike from Gary Stevens and an own-goal from Jiri Ondra saw us beat Bohemians Prague 2-0 in a UEFA Cup third round, first leg tie in N17 on 28 November 1983. We completed a 3-1 aggregate triumph with a 1-1 draw at the Stadion Vrsovice in Prague two weeks later. Mark Falco scored our opener on the night, while Zdenek Proke got a second-half equaliser for the home side.

We took on Slavia Prague in the UEFA Cup during both the 2006/07 and 2007/08 seasons. Jermaine Jenas got our winner at the Stadion Evzena Rosickeho on 14 September 2006 while Robbie Keane netted at the Lane in the second leg as we beat the Czech side 2-0 on aggregate in a first round tie. Keane and Dimitar Berbatov scored in a 2-1 third round, first leg win over the same opponents in Prague on 14 February 2008 while Jamie O'Hara got our goal in a 1-1 draw in the second leg in N17 the following week.

We signed Radek Cerny on an 18-month loan from Slavia Prague in January 2005 – a move which was eventually extended until the end of 2008. Cerny made his debut for us as a substitute for Paul Robinson in our 5-1 victory over Aston Villa at White Hart Lane on 1 May 2005, while he started our final two matches of the 2004/05 season away to Middlesbrough and at home to Blackburn Rovers. He featured in a total of 28 competitive, first team matches for us including our memorable 5-1 victory over Arsenal in the League Cup semi-final, second leg in N17 on 22 January 2008.

The Prague-born stopper retired in 2014, having also represented the likes of SK Ceske Budejovice, Union Cheb and Queens Park Rangers during his career. He won three caps for the Czech Republic between 2000 and 2002.

EURO HISTORY

The former Czechoslovakia won the European Championships in 1976 and finished third at the competition in both 1960 and 1980. Following the split of the nation into two sovereign states – the Czech Republic and Slovakia - in 1993, the former have qualified for every European Championships.

The Czechs were runners-up at Euro 96, while they reached the semi-final stage of the competition in 2004. They were quarter-finalists in 2012 while they finished bottom of Group D at UEFA Euro 2016.

SPURS RESPECTS

We are justly proud of our superb and loyal support, home and away. We all have a responsibility to act as ambassadors of Tottenham Hotspur Football Club. And act as considerate neighbours to those who live and work in the area around the stadium.

If you witness any form of anti-social abusive or discriminatory behaviour, homophobic language, crime, vandalism, violence, the use of smoke bombs or pyrotechnics close to you at any of our matches, please send a text to 07537 404821 along with your location (block/row/seat) and the location of the offence (block/row/seat).

Text 07537 404821 with – FOUL (language and behaviour); RACISM (racist chanting & shouting); HPH (homophobic chanting); DRINK (drinking alcohol in view of the pitch); SMOKE (smoking in the stadium); STAND (standing up); PYRO (use of or intended use of any pyrotechnics or smoke bomb).

SMOKING

There is no smoking or use of e-cigarettes permitted anywhere across the stadium campus.

PLEASE REMAIN SEATED

Please remain in your seats during play to ensure that the view is not obstructed for other spectators.

EMERGENCY EVACUATION

In the unlikely event that we should have to evacuate the stadium, please adhere to the advice given by front line staff and on our public address system.

18 → 82

Continuing our new Q&A feature for this season – using the year of the Club's formation as inspiration – as we ask our players to choose 18 lifestyle questions from a selection of 82. Today, Davinson Sanchez is in the hotseat.

1 How do you relax?

Davinson: "I like to sleep or play a bit of PlayStation."

2 Have you ever had a job outside football?

Davinson: "No, I've always been involved in football."

3 What is the first thing you do in the morning?

Davinson: "First, of course, I wake up and then I shower, always."

4 If you could sit yourself down with your 16-year-old self, what advice would you give yourself?

Davinson: "I wouldn't change anything from that time. I'm very happy with how things have gone."

5 You are going to a fancy-dress party – what is your costume?

Davinson: "I get a lot of people on my Instagram mentioning Idris Elba, so I would say I would go as him."

6 Describe the way you dance…

Davinson: "I just feel the music in my blood, and you see, my body just knows what to do!"

7 Which superhero do you wish actually existed?

Davinson: "Not a superhero exactly but perhaps Goku from Dragon Ball Z."

8 What is the most important lesson life has taught you?

Davinson: "My mum taught me so many lessons, probably one of the most important was to always be humble."

9 You are cooking - what is your signature dish?

Davinson: "I like to cook meatballs, with lots of cheese. Cheese with bacon wrapped around inside the meatballs is very nice."

10 Do you do the washing up?

Davinson: "Yes, I try to wash them up by hand rather than the machine, unless there are lots!"

11 Are you good at another sport?

Davinson: "I think athletics, especially running."

12 Beach holiday or city break?

Davinson: "Definitely the beach for me."

13 Tell us a secret…

Davinson: "I need my own space when I sleep. I must have my own room in the bed."

14 What would you sing at karaoke?

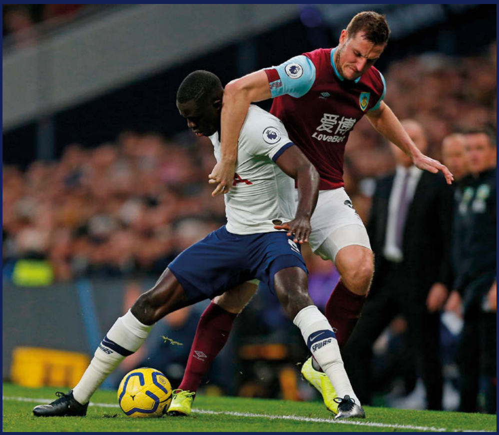
Davinson: "Maybe some Reggae or maybe a Colombian salsa tune."

15 What was your Spurs initiation song?

Davinson: "Perdoname by Gilberto Santa Rosa."

16 Would you prefer to have been a pop star or footballer?

Davinson: "That's an easy question, definitely a footballer."



17 Do you have a secret talent?

Davinson: "Yes, I'm a good son."

18 What is your favourite journey?

Davinson: "Going on holiday with my family, spending time with them in Colombia or any place to be honest."
